Mary had a little lamb,
A lobster and some prunes,
A glass of milk, a piece of pie,
And then some macaroons;
It made the naughty waiters grin
To see her order so,
And when they carried Mary out
Her face was white as snow.

MINING CASE TRIED IN DISTRICT COURT

The case of Kietzke against the Highland Boy Mining company came on for trial this morning in the district court before Judge Averill. Mr. Kietzke is the heaviest shareholder in the property, which is situated in the Reveille district. He has also been its general manager for some time. He claims that the company owes him for his services about $4,000, which sum he is suing to collect.

CHRISTMAS TREE WILL BE GREAT SUCCESS

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF COMMITTEE WILL BE HELD SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The committee on arrangements for the community Christmas tree met yesterday at 2 p. m. in the Mizpah club rooms with a full attendance. The various sub-committees were called on for reports, and these reports showed the work to be well in hand, even at this comparatively early date. The various committees have evidently been working enthusiastically both day and night to have accomplished so much. They all report the same eager desire on the part of the public to assist in making this the greatest event of the kind ever occurring in Tonopah.

The Christmas tree will be the largest and finest ever brought to the city; the decorations will be beautiful; the program, given by fifty Tonopah children, will be attractive throughout; there will be sacks of candies, nuts and oranges for every child in Tonopah.

This is no charity affair, but a big public Christmas celebration to which all children in Tonopah and vicinity are not only welcomed, but they are urged and expected to be present.

Chief Evans has promised to use the county car to bring in children from a point out twenty-five miles on the desert.

WHAT ELY MEETING MEANS FOR TONOPAH

ably the best advertised route across the continent, but the experiences that the tourists had in 1915 will probably cause many to investigate other routes with the result that we may, if we take hold of the advertising properly for the Midland Trail, be able to get a larger share of the travel.

The town of Ely is situated at the junction of the two roads, and naturally when a tourist was going to San Francisco he was routed by way of the Lincoln Highway, while if he was going to Los Angeles he was routed by the Midland Trail. Until the Tioga Pass was opened it was necessary for the San Francisco tourists, if routed by the Midland Trail, to practically go to Mohave before they could turn north, making their trip much longer. Now, with the Tioga Pass open, the two roads will have to stand on their merits more than they have in the past, for the American Automobile association's office at Ely will have a road to route the tourist over through Tonopah, eighty miles shorter than the Lincoln Highway, which will be of great advantage to us, unless it is offset by the Midland Trail being in worse condition than the Lincoln Highway, which is highly improbable.

The success of such an enterprise as this depends upon the energy and business ability of the men managing it, and it is necessary that good officers be elected. If the association does what is within its power to do, road conditions, legislation and regulation of traffic will come under its observation, and its influence can be used to correct and improve the importance of attending this meeting, for it means a great deal to Tonopah to step in just at present and take advantage of the opportunities that are present to swing the travel this way next year.

EDUCATORS TO BE ENTERTAINED HERE

PRESIDENT HENDRICK AND PARTY WILL PAY VISIT TO TONOPAH

Invitations have been issued by the University of Nevada alumni association of Tonopah for a banquet to be given at the Mizpah hotel on next Saturday evening in honor of President Hendrick and a party of distinguished alumni who will spend the week-end in Tonopah. The banquet is designed as the inaugural of the association here. An organization was perfected just recently, and invitations were sent to those people in closer touch with the university to present their hopes and ideals, and to lend the necessary inspiration to make the local association a live booster for the state's university.

In the attempt to make the list of former students in and around Tonopah complete, only the memory of those already enrolled could be relied upon. It is possible that some few who should be interested have been unwittingly omitted, and the committee wishes to urge that they communicate immediately with Ellsworth Bennett or Tom Walker.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of Lawrence Durban, late member of Prescott Lodge, No. 1, Knights of Pythias, will take place at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from Odd Fellows' hall, and all members of Mizpah lodge, No. 25, and visiting members are requested to attend.

BARBER SHOP BURGLARIZED

Some time during the night a burglar entered the Fitzgerald barber shop from the rear, apparently climbing through a transom. All the booty that he secured was a razor and fifty cents that had been left in the cash register.

MISS LENA BOHM returned this morning from the Gallagher-Marsh College at San Francisco, where she spent two and one-half years. She will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bohm, and may remain in Tonopah permanently.

All toys, games, dolls and similar lines of holiday goods will be closed out at from 25 to 50 per cent off. Splendid new novelties for gifts. Rotholz Bros. See us. —Adv. 9124 amount of extra taxation will be incurred to obtain this travel. The actual money expense at best will be very small, especially in comparison to the good that will be gained locally by the tourist travel.

Further, a good many of the eastern tourists, I have found in talking with them, have had an idea that the desert country in Nevada is like beach sand; no living vegetation, etc. In other words, that it is an extreme condition. Their knowledge is confined chiefly to a map with the notations across it "Rialston Desert" or "desert," etc., and they are happily surprised when they find a natural road as good as they came over from Ely here. There are troubles, to be sure, but not such as would take much expenditure of money if properly applied to correct.

In looking over the tourist register for 1915 I find reports on the Midland Trail, made by tourists only coming through here, such as: "Nevada roads best west of Mississippi," "Lincoln Highway via Eureka, Austin and Fallon outrageous" (the next signature below this), "I agree with the above." Others said: "Very good," "Nevada roads fine," "After Nebraska and Utah, Nevada looks good." In the spring some reports ran: "Roads good for time of year," "Best trip on Midland Trail."

So it is to be hoped the association will take up the matter of a little advertising of our road. This will not be expensive and the association has sufficient funds on hand to easily finance the matter.

Hoping we may meet with success in this matter, I remain, sincerely yours, S. R. MOORE, Tonopah, Nev., Dec. 11, 1915.

BUTLER THEATER

The feature tonight will be a five-part Metro production, "Emmy of Stork's Nest," founded on the novel of the same name by J. Breckenridge Ellis, in which Mary Miles Minter, the "Winsome Flower of the Screen," is starred. Although Miss Minter is only fifteen years old, she has captivated thousands of theater-goers in the speaking drama since she was seven. Never before has she had a role more alluring than as the mountain girl—a veritable wild flower—in this important screen product. Her bewitching charm and radiant youth are shown to better advantage even than they were in "The Little Rebel," the play in which she starred for four years with William and Dustin Farnum and in which she won notable laurels. While this is the second screen production in which Miss Minter has appeared under Metro auspices, she has already won tremendous popularity. The preliminary reel

MISS MYRTLE MURRAY, who came to Tonopah to attend the funeral of her father, Frank Murray, returned this morning to her home in Salt Lake City, accompanied by Miss G. Stigge.

MRS. HUGH H. BROWN and little daughter, Marjorie, returned yesterday morning from the coast. She was accompanied on the return trip by her sister-in-law, Mrs. S. R. Moore, who had spent some time at the St. Helena sanatorium, recuperating after an attack of sickness.

E. J. HAUG, who is connected with the Extension company and is also general superintendent of the Yerington Mountain Copper Co., left yesterday morning for Schurz. Before he returns to Tonopah he will be a benedict. He will on Christmas day wed Miss Clarimond Withers, formerly a teacher in the Tonopah public schools. The ceremony will take place at Reno.

will be a Pathe Weekly, which will be run ahead of the feature.

Tomorrow, "The House of Lost Court," an Edison picture on the Paramount program, filled with mystery and thrill; the Paramount Travel Pictures, and an added feature to our regular program will be Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle in all the society dances. Royalty, society, wealth have gazed at them in admiration; newspapers and magazines have printed pages about them; they are the most famous dancers in the world—the originators of the one-step, tango, maxixe; owners of the Castle house; the stars of New York's greatest musical comedies; the most discussed couple in all America. Don't miss seeing them.
